

135

Cherokee
Chronicle
Gaffney, SC
Circ. 5800
From Page:
3
4/3/2007
68126

SILVER-HAIRED CAUCUS - Some delegates to the Silver-Haired Legislature for a two-year term are shown at the caucus. Seated left to right are Michael Stogner, Aging and WIA Services Director for the Council of Governments; Mary Heatherly, delegate Spartanburg; and Eloise Cook, alternate delegate from Cherokee County; standing, Craig Brandon, Pickens delegate; Lamar Bailes, Oconee delegate; Jack Allison, Cherokee delegate; Arlis Henson, Anderson delegate; and Eugene Bon Durant, Greenville delegate. (Photo Submitted)

2 Locals Named To SC Caucus

A delegate and an alternate were selected to represent Cherokee County for the next two years at the Appalachian Caucus of the South Carolina Silver-Haired Legislature March 13.

Retired Judge Jack Allison was named delegate and Mrs. Eloise Cook was selected as the alternate for Cherokee County. Each county in the Appalachian Region selects delegates and alternates based upon population in the counties of the region. Counties in this caucus include Greenville, Cherokee, Spartanburg, Oconee, Pickens and Anderson.

Cherokee County has 9,265 citizens who are 60 years of age or older while there are over 700,000 throughout South Carolina.

The caucus was held in the board room of the Appalachian Council of Governments in Greenville.